EVENTS OF INTEREST IN AND OUT OF TOWN

Miss Wilson Expected to Return to the White House This Afternoon.

Weddings of Last Night—An Engagement Announced—Home-Comings—Notes.

Miss Margaret Wilson is expected to return to the White House this afternoon. She has just concluded a concert tour, her last appearance being in Cleveland.

Miss Wilson has not been in Washington since she left here in the early summer for a series of visits with friends in the north.

She spent the latter part of the summer at the President's summer home, at Cornish, and after concluding her stay there went to New York, from which point she began her concert series.

Mr. John Wilson is a guest at the White House.

The President and Mrs. Norman Galt attended the theater last night. They were accompanied by Mrs. Bolling, Misses Mary and Lucy Smith, Mr. John Wilson and Dr. Cary T. Grayson.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Kirke Porter and Miss Hegeman are in New York for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. William B. H. Dowse of Boston have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Beatrice Dowse, to Mr. Charles Sinclair Weeks, son of Senator and Mrs. John W. Weeks of West Newton.

Mrs. Lindley M. Garrison has returned from the Virginia Hot Springs, where she spent several weeks.

Miss Blaise Orme entertained at a linen shower and bridge party yesterday afternoon in compliment to Miss Dorothy Talcott, whose marriage to Hugh Gaylord Barclay of Mobile, Ala., will take place in December. Miss Frances Eminger presided at the tea.

Mrs. Theodore Shuey and Miss Shuey returned several days ago after spending the summer in Virginia.

Lieut. and Mrs. W. W. Smyth gave a surprise party and dance last night at the navy yard for Mrs. James H. Tomb, wife of Lieut. Commander Tomb. Among those present were Lieut. and Mrs. Hedrick and their guest, Miss Gantley of Philadelphia; Dr. and Mrs. Bloodgood, Lieut. Commander and Mrs. Bloodgood, Lieut. Commander and Mrs. Johnston, Lieut. Commander and Mrs. J. C. Fisher, Lieut. Commander and Mrs. Pollock, Lieut. Commander and Mrs. Sparrow, Lieut. Commander and Mrs. Block, Dr. and Mrs. Old, Lieut. and Mrs. Chandless, Mrs. Block of Kentucky, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Leonard, the Misses Smith, Lieut. Commander Marquart, Lieut. Green, Lieut. Hoover, Lieut. Thomson, Lieut. Emerson, Lieut. Bradford and Lieut. Bernhard.

Mrs. Harry W. Porter entertained at a buffet luncheon yesterday in honor of Mrs. Bliss E. O'Laugh and Mrs. B. Lee Stidham.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. William Johnson, on 19th street northwest, was the scene of a quiet wedding yesterday at 12 o'clock, when their sister, Miss Olive Johnson of Lynchburg, became the bride of Mr. Walter Evans, also of Lynchburg. The bride wore a traveling suit of brown broadcloth with hat to match. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Evans left for an extended trip in the north. They will be at home to their friends in Lynchburg, Va., after November 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashton G. Clapham will sail from New York on board the Teanacore Saturday for Havana, Cuba, and Panama.

They will remain away until the latter part of November, when they will return to their home in this city. Mr. E. J. Enrich of this city will accompany Mr. and Mrs. Clapham for as Panama, where he will remain permanently.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert C. Ransale entertained at dinner last night at the Chevy Chase Club in honor of their guest, Miss Helen Noyes of Milwaukee.

The marriage of Miss Sadie Victoria Householder and Dr. Henry Walper Kearney took place yesterday in Baltimore, the Rev. Wilmer P. Johnston officiating.

Dr. and Mrs. Kearney left immediately after the ceremony for a motor trip through Maryland, Pennsylvania and Virginia.

They will be at home in this city after November 15 at 1229 O street northwest.

Mrs. Joseph Esrey Johnson of Longwood, Va., has returned to her apartment at the Carlton for the winter.

An interesting wedding took place last night at Trinity Church, Takoma parish, when Miss Rita Dunbar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Dunbar, of this city became the bride of Mr. Hugh Mackay Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben G. Davis of Takoma Park, Md.

Frederick William Smith, rector of the church, performed the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white chiffon cloth and tulle trimmed with white ribbon and carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Miriam K. Face of Norfolk, Va., the bride's cousin, was the maid of honor. She wore a golden crepe de chine gown with an overdress of orchid chiffon cloth trimmed with gold lace, and carried sunset roses. Miss Helen Dunbar, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. Her gown was of white net and pink tulle, with a quaint wired skirt, and she carried a colonial bouquet of pink sandragons with sunset roses.

Mr. J. Bond Smith was best man, and Mr. John T. Dunbar, brother of the bride, Mr. Mortimer Clarke, Jr., and Mr. Lee R. Grubill, Jr., were ushers.

The members of the wedding party and both families were entertained at the future residence of Mr. and Mrs. Davis, 182 Oak avenue, Takoma Park, Md., where they will be at home after November 1.

A beautiful wedding took place last night at Friendship Heights, Md., when Miss Lella Marie Bogley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bogley, became the bride of Mr. James C. Dulin.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. C. P. Bratenahl in the drawing room, which was decorated with white and yellow chrysanthemums and palms. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely gown of ivory tinted pussy willow tulle with an accordion-pleated skirt and the bodice of georgette crepe and tulle. Her court train of broadcloth charmeuse fell from the shoulders and she wore a tulle veil caught with orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Esther Bogley, the bride's sister, was the maid of honor and she wore a corn-cob pussy willow tulle gown trimmed with tulle lace and tiny yellow rosebuds and carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums.

Miss Ethel Dulin, the bridegroom's sister, wearing a gown of pink crepe de chine, played the wedding march.

BRIDE OF LAST EVENING.

MRS. HUGH MACKAY DAVIS,
Who was Miss Rita Dunbar.

Mr. S. Theodore Howard acted as best man.

A reception followed when the newly married couple were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Bogley, the bride's mother, who wore a handsome gown of midnight blue crepe de chine, trimmed with gold lace.

Mr. and Mrs. Dulin left later for their wedding trip, the latter wearing a tailored suit of African brown whipcord, with hat to match, and fox furs. They will reside at Friendship, Md., on their return.

Miss Catherine Elizabeth Lohman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Lohman, and Mr. Odin Greene Clay were married last night at St. Mark's Church by Rev. C. R. Stetson in presence of a large gathering of their friends and relatives. Pink chrysanthemums, ferns and palms adorned the church. The ushers were Mr. Arthur Perry, Mr. Lloyd Brodie, Mr. William Ballinger, Mr. William Noel, Mr. Williams and Mr. Gallimore, and Mr. James E. Dobo was best man.

The bride and her father were preceded to the altar by six bridesmaids, a maid of honor, three little flower girls and a ring bearer.

The bride was beautifully dressed in white crepe charmeuse with a court train. The bodice was trimmed with chantilly lace and seed pearls and the long tulle veil was held by a pearl cap. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. Miss Mildred Smith, the maid of honor, wore seafoam crepe de chine, with a lace jacket and a white tulle hat, and carried a bouquet of pink chrysanthemums. Miss Louise Lindholm and Miss Annie Wiler, the bridesmaids, wore rose pink tulle made with full round skirts and short jackets, pink tulle hats with blue streamers, and carried blue lily of the valley. Miss Ethel Roddy, Miss Elizabeth Perry, Miss Louise Lindholm and Miss Annie Wiler, the bridesmaids, wore rose pink tulle made with full round skirts and short jackets, pink tulle hats with blue streamers, and carried blue lily of the valley. The three little flower girls were Miss Virginia Ballinger, in pale pink tulle with a net overdress; Miss Ethel Ashford and Miss Mary Lafontaine, who wore gowns of white tulle with net overdresses, were other attractive members of the bridal procession. All carried baskets of pink chrysanthemums. The ring bearer, Master Henry Brinke, wore navy blue serge with Buster Brown collar and cuffs.

Before Mr. and Mrs. Clay left for a northern honeymoon trip a reception for them was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. Lohman receiving with the couple, dressed in cream pink, meteor draped in net and a black velvet picture hat with pink plumes.

The bride's going-away suit was of midnight blue gabardine, trimmed with otter fur. Her hat was also blue. Mr. and Mrs. Clay will be at home after November 1 at 105 7th street southeast.

Clark—England Wedding.

Special Correspondence of The Star.

ROCKVILLE, Md., October 21.—In the presence of a large assemblage, Miss Carrie Crabb England, daughter of the late John G. England of this town, and William Dorsey Clark, also of Rockville, formerly of Howard county, were married yesterday in Christ Episcopal Church, Rockville. Rev. Howard C. England of Washington, brother of the bride, performed the ceremony and the chancel was banked with palms, autumn leaves and cut flowers.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Harrison G. England of Rockville, wore a gown of white crepe de chine, trimmed with chantilly lace. Her tulle veil was caught with orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. Her only ornament was a pearl necklace, a gift of the bridegroom.

The maid of honor was the bride's sister, Miss Maude Ridgely England, who wore pink crepe de chine with a large picture hat of black velvet and carried pink chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids, who wore yellow crepe de chine combined with black velvet and black velvet picture hats, were Misses Elsie May England, sister of the bride, of Rockville, and Sue Sillers Owens of Howard county, a cousin of the bridegroom. The flower girls were the bride's little nieces, Misses Lillian England, Brown and Charles G. Holland and Catherine Howard England of Washington.

The bridegroom's cousin, Mr. Lloyd L. Owens of Howard county, was best man, and the ushers were John A. England, brother of the bride, and William K. Jones and Charles G. Holland of Rockville and Wallace J. Clark of Howard county, brother of the bridegroom.

The ceremony was followed by a large reception at the home of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Clark left later on an extended trip.
